ABILITIES AND SKILLS

2D animation and illustration. I handle the most common illustration and design programs fluently (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign etc). I know HTML and work with Wordpress as well as with film programs like Final Cut Pro and Premiere. In animation, I mainly work classically, i.e. with pen and paper, but also frequently use animation programs like ToonBoom Studio Pro.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Sept. 2000 - today:

GANZANDERES animation & illustration

Ganzanderes was founded in September of the year 2000 by me, Malin Erixon. Since then, I've been freelancing doing illustration, design and animated film – contracted as well as independent productions. I've had the great pleasure to have my films screened at festivals and events all over the world, where I've also received numerous recognitions and awards. Read more about these recognitions below.

Besides my own animated short film productions, I freelance for advertising agencies, production companies, publishing houses, television etc. I have done work for: Sveriges Television (Swedish Television), MTV, Sony Music, the magazine EXPO, the magazine PEOPLE, the magazine Situation Stockholm, Grow Advertising Agency, Orion Pharma (pharmaceutical company), Atmo Media Network (production company), Rewir Brand Agency, and Illustratörcentrum amongst others. See a complete list of clients here: www.ganzanderes.com/about-and-clients

I have held courses in sketching and drawing techniques as well as held animation courses and mentored students at various design schools (see below). In September 2008, I was invited by Svenska Institutet (The Swedish Institute) to be one of two Swedes in the jury at the Cellfix Film Festival in Shanghai, China. The festival was a celebration of Bergman's 90 years and took place in the beginning of September, 2008 in Shanghai. I have also been invited to be one of three jury members of the Swedish competition at Uppsala Short Film Festival 2009 – the largest film festival for short films in Sweden.

My animated short film "Benjamin's Flowers" (Benjamins blommor) premiered in October 2012. It has been awarded at Stockholm International Film Festival, the largest competitive film festival in Northern Europe and has been selected to compete, as one of 65 films (and one of 10 animated short films) out of 8,102 submissions at the Sundance Film Festival 2013 – one of the world's biggest film festivals. It has also been selected for Liljevalchs Vårsalong 2013, the famous jury-selected Spring Salon exhibition marks the opening of each new artistic year at Liljevalchs Art Gallery in Stockholm. It has been selected to more than 60 film festivals around the world and premiered at cinemas all across Sweden in October, 2013, through Folket Bio. Please visit www.benjaminflowers.com for more information.

My most recent animated short film called "But You Are a Dog", premiered in January 2014 at Göteborg International Film Festival where it was nominated for "Startsladden" – Best Swedish Short Film – one of the biggest awards for short film in the world. It has also been selected to compete for Best Swedish Short Film at Uppsala International Short Film Festival 2014 as well for the 1 km film-scholarship at Stockholm International Film Festival. It has been screened at several other festivals around the world and premiered at cinemas all across Sweden on October 16, 2014, through Folket Bio. It has also been selected for Liljevalchs Vårsalong 2015 at Liljevalchs Art Gallery in Stockholm. Read more about the film on www.butyouareadog.com and more about my other productions below.

I am presently in the starting phase of my new animated short film "Sleep Incidences" which recently received production funding from the Swedish Film Institute.
